

I am against large conglomerates owning all of the media (radio, TV, newspapers, etc.) in one area. This will limit local news and cause a monopoly to exist. This is not beneficial to consumers and the public, in general. There should continue to be limits on the numbers and type of media domination in each geographic area.